

David Fernando Gamboa Castellanos

Career Summary

David Fernando Gamboa Castellanos is a highly motivated and sociable aspiring Backend Developer with 4 months of software development training (ongoing) and a Technical High School Diploma in Computer Systems. He has shown leadership skills by managing two projects during his studies and is strong in problem-solving and teamwork. Passionate about technology, driven to learn, and always open to collaboration, he enjoys working in dynamic environments where he can grow both personally and professionally.

Summary of Qualifications

Proficient in:

- Programming Languages: Python, JavaScript
- Web Development: HTML, CSS
- Version Control & Tools: Git, GitHub
- Software Development Methodologies: Scrum
- Operating Systems: Windows, Linux
- Troubleshooting

Languages

- Spanish (native - C2)
- English (Intermediate- B1)

Career History

Academic Projects

Institución Educativa Técnico Dámaso Zapata, Bucaramanga, Colombia

Jan. 2024 – Nov. 2024

Project Leader – Typing Game for Skill Improvement

Responsibilities & Achievements:

- Led the development of a typing game designed to enhance users' keyboard skills through interactive exercises and real-time feedback.
- Received highly positive feedback from students and teachers, recognizing the game's effectiveness in improving typing speed and accuracy.
- Achieved one of the top project rankings in Tecnoferia, a school-wide technology event featuring numerous system-related projects.
- Explored potential implementation of the game within the institution and other educational environments to support typing proficiency training.

Education

Institución Educativa Técnico Dámaso Zapata, Bucaramanga, Colombia Jan. 2021 – Nov.2024
Technical High School Diploma in Computer Systems

Education

Campuslands, Floridablanca, Colombia Nov. 2024 – (On going)
Software Development